Date: 29/01/2023

Venue: Village Tuman (C.G) .

Program: Soil conservation.

Report

Saving Soil Saves Earth, Saving Soil Saves Nature.

Soil conservation is the prevention of soil loss from erosion or the prevention of reduced fertility caused by overuse, acidification, salinization, or other chemical soil contamination. It is the process of protecting soil from damage caused by natural or human activities. This includes preventing soil erosion, improving soil quality, and maintaining soil health.

These ideas were expressed by Shri D.K.Chandra Asst.Prof. of Sociology before the villagers of Tuman village on 29/01/2023. He explained in detail about the various methods of soil conservation .The Sarpanch and other villagers expressed that they would try their best to conserve soil as far as possible. 23 students of the college were also present in the village.
